TXCA & CLE: connecting the global textile care industry

Held at the Shanghai New International Expo Centre, the 2026 International Trade Fair for Textile Laundry, Leather Care, Cleaning Technology and Equipment (TXCA & CLE) set records for exhibition space, exhibitor numbers and overseas attendance. The 25,000 sqm exhibition brought together 328 exhibitors from 15 countries and regions and attracted nearly 40 buyer delegations. It welcomed 28,436 trade visitors from 88 countries and regions, with participation of 4,598 overseas visitors, up 70% year on year and accounting for more than 16% of total attendance.

TXCA & CLE connects suppliers of laundry equipment, leather care technology, energy-efficient cleaning solutions and digital applications with customers and partners across the Asia-Pacific. Its international reach and broad industry coverage help exhibitors build business relationships, exchange technical expertise and introduce products and approaches that support higher standards of quality and sustainability.

Exhibitor feedback:

"We were able to strengthen established partnerships and meet many potential customers, while the high standard of the exhibitors and innovations on display gave us further confidence in the industry's future."
Mr Bob Calver, COO, Alliance Laundry Systems

"We have participated in TXCA & CLE and Texcare globally for many years. We have noticed an increase in customers, more activity overall, and a growing presence of overseas visitors, which is particularly important to us."
Mr Martin Rauch, CEO, Jensen Group

"The level of service has only continued to improve, with thoughtful and comprehensive support throughout the fair. Technology featured prominently, with plenty of new ideas and developments in artificial intelligence, digitalisation and internet-based applications."
Mr Jing Gu, General Manager Assistant, Jiangsu Chuandao Washing Machinery Technology Co Ltd

"At TXCA & CLE, we spoke in depth with customers and industry peers from China and overseas. The fair showed that the industry is adopting smarter technology at an accelerating pace, with advanced solutions increasingly put to practical use."
Mr Bin Fu, Technical Expert, Shanghai Weishi Machinery Co Ltd

Visitor feedback:

"We brought 25 association members to visit the exhibition. TXCA & CLE has helped our members get a full picture of robotics and the latest technology in the sector, and everyone has been especially interested in robotic solutions for handling clean linen."
Ms Rita Morrison, CEO, Laundry Association Australia

"TXCA & CLE is a prestigious platform for exchange and collaboration in the laundry and dyeing industry, and its influence continues to grow year on year. The fair also helps us follow global developments and bring advanced technologies, equipment and industry knowledge back to our member companies."
Mr Jidong Guo, President, Beijing Laundry and Dyeing Industry Association
